VBS 2012 takes children to the water

Water is a gift from God, and what child doesn't love diving into cool, clean water? A new curriculum—Take Me to the Water: God's Love Flows—invites kids to dive into Bible stories about water, and to think about the role of water in their own lives. As they do, they'll learn how God is the source of life and sustenance for us today.

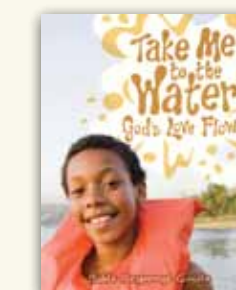

"Many Bible stories use water to show God's love," says MennoMedia managing editor for curriculum

Mary Ann Weber. "God provided water to the children of Israel, and Jesus talked with a Samaritan woman about living water. Throughout the Bible, God's gift of water brings life and blessing. Through Take Me to the Water, children will explore stories of water in the Bible, and hear about water issues around the world today. They'll learn how water is a constant reminder of God's care and presence in our lives."

Take Me to the Water is organized around five daily themes, adaptable to a traditional vacation Bible school program or to a 12-session midweek or club plan. Each theme introduces a new Bible story through worship, singing, and drama. After hearing the story, kids participate in activities and responses to help create deeper understandings and connections with the overall theme. Materials are written for children age 4 through grade 8.

Resources are available in a boxed set containing all materials, or separately. Free supplementary resources, including activities for kids and helps for leaders, will be available online at www.mennomedia.org/vbs. One item new online for 2012 is a calendar with 30 days' worth of water activities based on the VBS stories and Bible verses. "This was a fun resource to put together," says Weber. "It grew out of a comment by a pastor who wished for a way to build on what the children in his congregation had learned in VBS last year." Also new online for 2012 is a slide show with the Bible memory verses that can be used during worship or gathering.

MennoMedia publishes a new VBS curriculum each year. Recent titles include Taste & See: God is Good; Be Bold: God is With You; Catch the Spirit! and Meet God on the Mountain. Each curriculum was named a "Top Pick" by the Center for the Ministry of Teaching at Virginia Theological Seminary.

Boxed set: $134.99 USD, $155.24 CAD
