The Heart of Mennonite Worship
 Five Vital Rhythms

Enter the sanctuary of any congregation on Sunday morning and you'll see people at worship. We sing, we pray, we listen to the Word, and we break bread together. Worship, and especially singing together, is our common ground. It shapes our faith in profound ways.

This four-session study guide will help your congregation think more deeply about worship. Plus, by completing the accompanying song survey you'll be helping shape a future song collection for Mennonite Church Canada and Mennonite Church USA!

Free at www.MennoMedia.org/worship.

Devotional resources build faith

Engaging devotional and inspirational resources can help families, groups, and individuals of all ages grow in faith. Is your congregation aware of the devotional resources produced for Mennonite Church USA and Mennonite Church Canada?

The Gather 'Round Talkabout offers families brief prayers, discussion questions, and activities on the weekly Bible stories. The Talkabout's flexible files (available on CD or by download) can be e-mailed to parents, printed for take-home, or placed in church bulletins or newsletters. Bonus items include worship resources for the whole congregation.

With the Word: A Bible Study and Devotional Guide for Groups or Individuals is a new series for adult groups and individuals, offering brief Bible study sessions with devotionals on the same text and theme. A study on Psalms is now available, and a study on Luke is coming soon.

Purpose: Stories of Hope and Promise, a monthly magazine, has inspirational stories around a theme, with regular columns on food, peace, humor, and resources for faithful living.

Rejoice! Daily Devotional Readings features a daily Bible reading with a short inspirational message and a prayer of response. Published quarterly, Rejoice! also includes stories, poems, and prayer requests for Mennonite mission workers, schools, and church agencies.

Find more inspiration at "A Sip of Scripture," "Glimpses of Jesus," or "Peace Blend"—online at Third Way Café (www.thirdway.com). Also visit www.shapingfamilies.com to learn how the Shaping Families radio program can help your congregation reach out to your community.

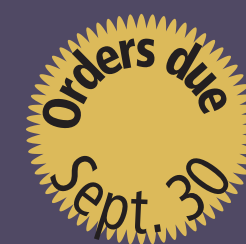

A number of Herald Press books provide devotional guidance for groups or individuals.

Setting the Agenda: Meditations for the Organization's Soul has meditations for boards, councils, or committees to read together. Day by Day These Things We Pray calls readers to morning and evening prayer, and two volumes of Take Our Moments and Our Days offer collections of prayers by church season.

Ask church leaders and nurture, formation, outreach, or deacon committees to encourage people in your congregation to use these resources. Then post or circulate this brochure so classes and groups can also stay informed about MennoMedia publications!
